REDACTED RECORD

You don't often get email from

I don't not want to see this store change hand so they can continue to take advantage of the people's in this community. They say they changed owners but the same people are still working there. They just changed the name on paper not the people working there. They sell single cigarettes and blunts to minors. They by food for the store from people off the street and the double the price. They by food stamps from drug addicts that don't feed their children with the money. I watch and have told them to stop it. However, they told me they are Changing owners the old owners are gone. Not true! The same people that loss the ability to use the stamp program still work there. I don't do business with this store because of the harm they do in this community! I would not want this store to get approved for any type of business.

My name : Community Activist here on I do feedings to help with the hungry children this store helps create by buying ebt on the low. They is why this store loss them. Now they are playing the city by saying they are changing owners but only on paper. Once you grant them this license to do business it will be the same people running it as before. They all own a number of stores and when one goes to far they just change the name on the paper work not the people working there. All they are doing now is just to get back the ebt program. As you see the name of the store did not change, because the same people own it. This is just a name change on paper. I do not agree with this license of this store!
