Regan Kennedy is a Vice President at the firm primarily responsible for asset management activities but also assists in acquisition functions.

Prior to Crestlight, Regan was a Senior Investment Manager at REDICO, a full service commercial real estate investor, developer and operator of diversified asset classes across the eastern United States. While at REDICO, Regan directly managed a $500M office and mixed-use portfolio comprising 2.5 million SF. In addition to asset management, Regan also led the disposition and refinancing of assets at realization, as well as underwrote and onboarded new acquisitions. Prior to REDICO, Regan worked on the investment team at ValStone Partners, a private equity real estate fund manager with nearly $1 billion in assets under management. Regan's roles included acquisitions, asset management, and the disposition of legacy assets. Prior to ValStone, Regan worked as an office broker for Colliers International, where he specialized in office leasing.

Regan received a BA in Economics from the Marquette University and his MBA in Real Estate from the University of Wisconsin's Graaskamp Center for Real Estate. Regan currently resides in suburban Detroit.
