INITIAL INVESTIGATION

Luna, Xavier O 017587

04/28/2022

This report is submitted by P.O. X.LUNA assigned to District Seven Day Shift. On Wed. 4/27/22 I (squad 7122) was dispatched to 7012 W. Appleton Ave. Room#5 (CAPITOL MANOR MOTEL), which is in the City and County of Milwaukee, for an overdose complaint.

Upon arrival I observed MFD with the victim, later identified as Timothy M. COPENING b/m 1/30/71. MFD Captain J. FRANZ informed me that he administered 5 doses of Narcan to COPENING. I observed that COPENING was awake but still very much under the influence of whatever illegal narcotics he put in his system.

I looked around the room but did not observe any illegal narcotics or drug paraphernalia of any kind in the room. MFD was able to move COPENING to the Med Unit. During this time I asked Captain J. FRANZ if he observed any illegal narcotics in the room upon their arrival. FRANZ informed me that they did not observe anything, but that there was a white female at the location upon their arrival.

FRANZ informed me that she stated she did not know COPENING, but yet was gathering clothing, that appeared to belong to COPENING, and placing it outside next to the door. I went into the parking lot and onto the sidewalk searching for the female but did not observe her anywhere on the premises or in the immediate area.

I spoke with the owner of the motel, identified as Gary S. PATEL w/m 6/1/76. I asked PATEL if he had any information on the person that checked into Room #5. PATEL informed me that COPENING checked into the room approximately 2 days ago as a single occupant. PATEL stated he did see a white female that was hanging around the room, but she did not check in with COPENING. PATEL stated he noticed this morning that MFD and the Police were at Room#5 and figured something happened. I informed PATEL that COPENING had used some illegal drugs and that it would probably be in his best interest not to rent a room to COPENING again in the future.

COPENING was conveyed to St. Joseph's Hospital by MFD MED UNIT#16 where COPENING was admitted at 10:09 am and treated by Doctor Jason STASZKO. I was informed that at this time it was unknown what illegal narcotics COPENING took but that COPENING was in no immediate danger of dying from the illegal narcotics. I was also informed it would be several hours before COPENING would be in any condition to make any statements as to what he took.
