

Two individuals called/left voice mail messages in support of the Certificate of Appropriateness proposal for the demolition of five properties in the East Side Commercial Historic District and the construction of a new Marriott Hotel.

The calls came in on Thursday December 9, 2010.

The individuals were:

Scott Hayden who identified himself as a developer.

Bob Reenitz (unsure of spelling) who said he wanted the Historic Preservation Commission to support the hotel.