1. Description of Grant Project/Program (Include Target Locations and Populations):

The purpose of the 2022 COPS Hiring Program grant is to build legitimacy and trust between the Milwaukee Police Department and the community. The grant will fund hiring 50 new police officers to allow re-deployment of veteran officers to focus on community oriented policing strategies to improve relations with all communities in Milwaukee. The Department is developing a strategic plan that is drawing input and participation from the community. The strategic plan will provide a roadmap and inform how to redeploy veteran officers to address legitimacy and trust. The grant provides the tool to take immediate steps to implement the plan and will demonstrate commitment by the Department of realignment of service based on community oriented policing strategies.

2. Relationship to City-Wide Strategic Goals and Departmental Objectives:

The project aligns with MPD goals and priorities to focus on community oriented policing to build legitimacy and trust between the Department and the community.

3. Need for Grant Funds and Impact on Other Departmental Operations (Applies only to Programs):
