

My car was stolen on 10/14 in the early morning. I went to the police station to file a police report. I was finished by 11:10 am. Due to the police officer's negligence, the report wasn't filed until 4:24pm. During this time, the vehicle was towed by an independent tow company at 12:10pm which caused me to pay $658.78 due to the fact the police report wasn't filed completely. I went back to District 7 and they confirmed this story as accurate and stated I would have to contact the city attorney to get a reimbursed for these expenses.

Thank you,

Contact Officer: F. Galloway
Case Number: 22 - 288 - 0060 Incident Date: 10-14-2022
District / Division: 7 Shift Hours: 8A-4P
Phone Number: 414 935-7272 Email Address: fgallo@milwaukee.gov

The Contact Officer is your primary source for general information regarding the investigation as well as arrests and the status of property in police custody.

IMPORTANT REMINDERS FOR VICTIMS OF CRIME

- If the District Attorney's Office issues charges in this case you will have the right to attend all court proceedings and, upon request, to be heard in court when your rights as a victim are implicated. Contact the Victim Witness Program for information about your rights and about charges, the next court hearing and to provide your input regarding potential protective bail conditions that may be ordered by the court.
- If you are threatened or intimidated by anyone because of your cooperation with law enforcement and prosecution in connection with this crime, you should report that to the investigating agency. If you feel you are in immediate danger, call 9-1-1.
- It is very important that you keep agencies informed of any changes to your address, phone number, or email.
- You may be eligible to receive reimbursement for certain expenses related to the crime. It may be helpful to you to keep records of the crime-related expenses such as lost wages, repairs or medical bills because you may be required to provide this information to support your claim. Restitution may be ordered if someone is convicted of the crime against you, or you may be eligible for crime victim compensation even if no one is arrested or convicted. For more information contact the Wisconsin Department of Justice at 1-800-446-6564 or P.O. Box 7951, Madison, WI 53707-7951 or online at: www.doj.state.wi.us/ocvs.
- WI-VINE services allow you to register for notification about changes in custody status for offenders who are in a county jail. Find more information at www.vinelink.com or call 1-888-944-8463.

WISCONSIN LAW PROVIDES VICTIMS OF CRIMES WITH SPECIFIC RIGHTS

The Wisconsin Constitution (Article I, Section 9m) and Wis. Stat. Chapter 950 give special rights to victims of crime. Some rights are automatic while others must be requested. The Wisconsin Department of Justice Victim Resource Center can provide you with information about victims' rights as well as victim services in your area. call 1-800-446-6564 or access a directory online <http://www.doj.state.wi.us/ocvs>.

Please note that it is not always clear to whom victims' rights apply at different stages of a case. Use the information on this form to discuss and clarify your rights with the agencies you are in contact with about the case and to make your interests known.

Notice to all vehicle owners - Please Read: We understand having your vehicle towed is an inconvenience and we want to make the recovery process of your vehicle as easy as possible. By signing below, you represent, warrant, and covenant to the following: • You have had an opportunity to inspect the recovered vehicle and provide Always Towing written notification of any damage to or missing property from the vehicle and agree to assume full responsibility for the vehicle upon payment of this invoice. • You are the legal and rightful owner of the recovered vehicle and have provided Always Towing with photo identification in the form of a valid driver's license permitting you to drive on Wisconsin's roadways. • You understand that Always Towing has the right to refuse credit card payments from any person who threatens to stop payment, void, or authorize a chargeback. If you are unable to pay the invoice to redeem your vehicle upon pickup due to our refusal to accept your credit card payment, we will agree to hold your vehicle for up to 24 hours without incurring additional storage fees to allow you to return with an accepted payment method. • You give Always Towing permission to release the recovered vehicle to you upon payment of this invoice. • You agree to submit all complaints and disputes to Always Towing in writing to complaints@alwaystowingmilwaukee.com or by certified mail to 3700 W. Wells Street, Milwaukee, WI 53208. All complaints and disputes must contain the following information: (1) your name, address, and a telephone number where we can reach you; (2) the make, model, and license plate number or VIN of the towed vehicle; (3) the tow date; and (4) a detailed description of your complaint. All complaints will be investigated. You hereby waive all claims and damages against Always Towing & Recovery, Inc. arising from the tow of your vehicle, excepting complaints made according to the terms set forth herein within 7 business days of the date set forth below. • You understand that false, misleading, or intentionally disparaging claims made by you to the public regarding Always Towing could subject you to claims for slander and defamation. • You agree to hold harmless and indemnify Always Towing & Recovery, Inc. and its officers, shareholders, directors, employees, and subcontractors (the "Releasees") from any and all third-party claims arising out of (1) your breach of these terms, (2) any false or defamatory statements that you make to the press or public concerning the Releasees, and (3) your negligent, willful, and illegal acts.

Please be advised, as the vehicle owner, you are responsible for any and all accrued towing and storage charges from the time the vehicle enters our lot. If you have sold this vehicle to another party you are receiving this letter because you are still listed as the owner.

Our storage rate is: $25.00 for the first day, $25.00 per day thereafter. As the vehicle owner, your options are as follows, with ID, proof of ownership, and proof of insurance (if no insurance can be presented, the vehicle can be towed by our company or another licensed and insured towing company.) The vehicle may be reclaimed from the address listed above, between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. on Monday thru Friday, and on Saturday and Sunday from 8:00 am to 12:00 p.m. The amount above may not include total charges accumulated on this vehicle.

Pay with cash, credit or debit (credit/debit cards are only accepted from the registered owner of the vehicle), all accrued towing and storage charges and remove the vehicle from our storage lot. No personal checks or money orders will be accepted.

Do nothing, and the vehicle will be sold with the accrued towing and storage charges (minus sale/salvage price) remaining your responsibility. This is in accordance with Wisconsin State Statute S779.415 if this vehicle is not claimed and the outstanding charges have not been paid within 30 days or a written agreement has been entered into with the towing company in possession of the vehicle, the above-listed vehicle will be sold or junked.
