Hello Alderman Kovac,

My name _____ I am resident of the 3rd district _____ I closed purchase of the property at _____ of 2020 and have occupied it ever since.

I write to you with a concern over _____ Little Caesar's Pizza franchise at 2831 N Oakland Ave. The sellers of my home informed me that your office is the contact for zoning and licensing information. That being the case, would you be able to furnish me with the dates of the zoning and licensing hearings for that business? I would like the opportunity to hold them accountable to their commitments against a number of grievances on my part as a homeowner and permanent resident in a formal setting. I have no contact information other than Little Caesar's corporate as recourse, a mire into which I would rather not wade unless necessary.

My complaints follow along two lines. First, the fence separating the parking _____ property was damaged by their clientele and has fallen in disrepair, leaving a car-sized gap. It has remained so since October despite a stop-gap repair, which was soon thereafter again damaged by their clientele.

Second, of late, there is also nigh constant presence of refuse in their parking lot, verging on or exceeding a nuisance. A portion of this refuse ends up on my property on a daily basis regardless. On occasion their clientele will throw refuse over the fence onto _____ property or otherwise wrongfully deposit it there, in the street, or in Riverside Park. In any case, I neither enjoy disposing of their refuse myself, such as I am able, nor do I enjoy the character this imposes on the neighborhood as it only begets more squalor from others.

I'm happy to have thriving businesses in the neighborhood, but the problems I have seen remain unabated and exacerbated. My goal is to establish a dialogue with the business owners in order to reach a compromise satisfying both parties.

Thank you for your consideration.
