Architectural Description and Significance: 2-story painted brick veneer, flat-iron-shaped building with corner tower, altered 1st fl. The rear half was added some time before 1910. The tavern is a representative example of a vernacular, Queen Anne commercial building, distinctive for its corner tower and flat-iron shape.	Historical Background and Significance: This picturesque saloon survived the 1892 fire. Dwarfed by the warehouses around it, it recalls the days when the neighborhood consisted of large warehouses and tiny white frame houses with lilacs in their front yards.	Map Name
