They have over 500 employees. The Buyer has served many of Milwaukee's highest-risk residents for over 110 years. When the organization was founded as the Wisconsin Society for the Friendless in 1912, the mission was solely to help incarcerated people and assist the families left behind. The organization has evolved through the years, changing its name and expanding populations serving as a response to growing community needs. But the spirit of being a "Friend of the Friendless" remains in the agency's mission today.

Wisconsin Community Services (WCS) Mission Statement: WCS advocates for justice and community safety, providing innovative opportunities for individuals to overcome adversity.

WCS Core Values: Justice, Respect, Integrity, and the Pursuit of Excellence.
