

Kevin C. Kennedy

Kevin C. Kennedy serves as the Director-Real Estate Investments position for Northwestern Mutual Life.

Northwestern Mutual is a AAA-rated life insurance company with over $238 billion in assets, including $32 billion in mortgages and $2 billion in real estate equities. Northwestern Mutual is a general account investor, allowing for significant flexibility in investment structuring, servicing, and portfolio management.

Kennedy joined Northwestern as a Licensed Architect in the Real Estate Department in 1989. He was later appointed an Officer of the Company, and subsequently a Director. Kennedy graduated from the University of Wisconsin – Milwaukee with a degree in Architecture in 1983. In addition, to his background as an Architect, Kennedy received an Executive MBA from Marquette University in 1999, and has experience as a real estate developer. In his current role as Director-Asset Management, Kennedy has responsibilities for the management and growth of the real estate equity portfolio.

Kennedy has been a volunteer youth football coach for over 20 years and is serving his third term as a Cedarburg School Board member and is its Vice President. He is on the Board of Directors for Business Improvement District #21 in downtown Milwaukee, as well as a board member of the Eastown Association.
