ADDITIONAL COMMENTS/RECOMMENDATIONS:

This report was written by Police Officer Fabian Garcia assigned to District 6-Early Power, Squad 6264.

On Wednesday. January 24, 2024, at 2:30 pm, my partner Police Officer Michael Ward and I met with licensee/agent Daniel P. Jacobs.

Jacobs stated that he would like to open for business by the end of March. The location is equipped with a parking lot located on the south side of the business. The parking lot does have adequate lighting and there are no areas near the business where someone could conceal themselves.

The location is equipped with cameras, the location currently has 2 interior cameras and the exterior has 3 exterior cameras. Jacobs stated that he plans on adding a few more cameras to the interior and exterior to cover the parking lot as well. We were unable to view the cameras at this time, but a conversation was had regarding placement of cameras. Jacobs stated that he does not plan on having security at the location.

Jacobs was provided a District 6 community contact guide and was explained and shown the standing complainant form, which Jacobs was willing to be a standing complainant. Jacob did fill out the form and was returned to Officer Ward and I.
