Hey All,

I wanted to forward an email of a situation involving Eric Blue of Fully Loaded and what appears to be Pepper Pot food truck businesses below. It sounds like Eric Blue of Fully Loaded was leasing the truck from Pepper Pot and they were trying to repossess it from him. We were there to issue a closure for Fully Loaded for not having a license. We are hoping to flag these individuals from pursuing licenses going forward because honestly they have been problematic to say the least and from basic glance of the below escalation not someone who should be serving the general public.

I spoke with our Coordinator and she did leave her contact info with the officer. Let us know if you have any questions or if there is follow up action we should consider.

Thank you,

Carly

Subject: RE: Fully Loaded

Eric was closed and placarded. Though he might not have a mobile unit anymore...Courtney knows the story but for the rest of you, it was an interesting afternoon to say the least. When I arrived, there was a pickup truck behind Eric's truck with 3 guys sitting in the truck bed. I ended up parking in the Advanced Auto Parts lot and by the time I walked up to the truck, one of the men was at the window. There was some kind of not nice verbal exchange going on between them, but as I got to the window, the other guy walked back to the truck. So I told Eric what I was there for and he started to shut his window and said "I'm not operating now." I asked him to leave it open because I had to place the close placard on the window. I did that and took the photo. Then, all of the men came back up and while one was talking to me about the truck, the others were getting into a heated argument, they followed Eric into the truck and it got real loud and then all of the guys burst out the door with one stating that Eric cut his brother with a knife. Eric came out of the truck with a large knife and the one guy did have 2 fingers cut and bleeding. Eric called 911. The other men then told me I was a witness and wanted me to stay for the police. The other men were from PepperPot Catering and told me the truck was theirs and they wanted it back. They said they were leasing it to Eric, but he was not paying. Something about how Eric also forged some documents when he retrieved the truck out of the impound lot and so on.. The police came and eventually said they were looking into who owns the truck and I left.

Hi Norma, I know you were going to send him over to MPD — he is currently out operating at Appleton Avenue. Do we still have a real time MPD referral person who might be willing to stop out there now to issue the citation? Kris is there now putting a closed placard up.
