LICENSED PREMISE REPORT

Hernandez Flores, Victor 035684

12/31/2023

This report is written by PO Victor HERNANDEZ, assigned to DISTRICT TWO Late Shift.

On Sunday December 31, at approximately 1:10am, Squad 2350 (along with PO Kevin FREY) was dispatched to 1500 W Mitchell St also known as La Sirenita Bar for a battery complaint in which the caller was highly intoxicated and uncooperative denying medical.

Upon our arrival I spoke with the caller who was highly intoxicated, uncooperative and only identified as "Nelson" Nelson stated "it happened in the bar". I observed "Nelson" to have a bloody nose and I asked him if he would like medical services which he denied.

I then spoke with the security guard Angel RAMOS MARTINEZ (W/M 10/30/02), who stated that "Nelson" was highly intoxicated and escorted out of the bar without incident. RAMOS stated that "Nelson" then made several attempts to re enter the bar and at one point lost balance and face planted on the front step of the premise.

After I spoke with Angel, I spoke with the other security guard who identified himself as Martin Junior RAMOS-MARTINEZ (W/M 6/6/2000) who stated that "Nelson" had been asked to leave several times as he was highly intoxicated, and was ultimately bounced out by force; which caused Martin, Angel and "Nelson" to lose balance and fall to the ground.

I was then approached by the manager who identified as Carlos Manuel MALDONADO LEON (W/M 10/21/97) who stated that he is one of the bar managers and "Nelson" was asked to leave the bar several times, then escorted out of the bar, making re-entry and then escorted out one more time by two bouncers eventually losing balance and all parties involved falling on the sidewalk. I asked MALDONADO LEON if I he had access to security cameras in which he stated "Yes we have cameras, lets go inside, talk to the owner too and we can show you the cameras".

While inside the premise, I spoke with the owner who identified himself as Francisco MARTINEZ-

VILLEGAS (W/M 4/2/77). MARTINEZ-VILLEGAS stated that he asked "Nelson" to please leave as he was highly intoxicated and MARTINEZ-VILLEGAS did not want to permanently ban him from the establishment. MARTINEZ-VILLEGAS then granted me access to his security cameras.

I then reviewed video surveillance footage. In the footage, I observed the both security guards (Angel and Martin RAMOS MARTINEZ) escorting out "Nelson". I then observed "Nelson" linger outside of the establishment, attempting to regain entry into the establishment, and at one point putting his hand over the Angel's shoulder. I also observed "Nelson" swaying back and forth while standing on a front step of the establishment, losing balance and falling face first on a step and then getting up, "Nelson" then stood up and made his way to the sidewalk. I then observed Angel enter the establishment and leaving the main entrance unattended. While the door was unattended, I observed two patrons stand by entrance making small talk with "Nelson" and the three enter the premise. After a few minutes, I observed "Nelson" being bounced out of the establishment by Angel and Martin RAMOS-MARTINEZ. While being bounced out, I observed "Nelson" to be uncooperative with the bouncers and not wanting to exit the premise. I also observed "Nelson" place his left hand over Angel's back side of the neck area while the main door was being opened. I then observed "Nelson", Angel, and Martin MARTINEZ-RAMOS lose balance and fall to the ground in front of the establishment.

While on scene, I observed the licenses posted and they were up to date. During my investigation, I did observe that the premise seemed to be over capacity as it was hard to get around to the bar area to meet the owner of the business. While on scene, I also observed several people highly intoxicated. Throughout my investigation, MARTINEZ-VILLEGAS and his employees were highly cooperative.

On scene I (PO LOMELI) called the caller who sounded highly intoxicated and verbally identified himself as Jose CRUZ unknown DOB. Friday, April 12, 2024, at 10:00 am, Captain Pat PAJOT, Sgt. Guadalupe VELASQUEZ, Alderman Jose PEREZ, Araceli AREVALO (Safe and Sound), and I met with the licensee (Francisco MARTINEZ-VILLEGAS) of La Sirenita Bar and the accountant, Pauline BELL, regarding issues with a neighbor near the bar. MARTINEZ-VILLEGAS had contacted the office of Ald. PEREZ to request the meeting in hopes of solving ongoing issues with a neighbor at 1512 W Mitchell St. The neighbor, Ruth, was also invited but either did not respond or declined the invitation from Alderman PEREZ.

The meeting began with a summary of calls for service to the premises since 3/1/24 (six business checks and one shotspotter call). MARTINEZ-VILLEGAS stated that she was working the night of the shotspotter call, 3/29/24 at 2:08am, but that she had already closed the tavern, had not heard any gunshots, and that she had spoken with the investigating officers.

The sole License Premises Report for the location was also discussed. A subject had called regarding underage subjects at the tavern, officers had arrived at the tavern, and had found no underaged subjects.

MARTINEZ-VILLEGAS stated that she had hired a security guard to patrol the 1500 block of Mitchell St regarding the complaints of her neighbor (public drinking by patrons, littering, noise) but that the neighbor had complained to her about the presence of the security guard on the block.

Captain PAJOT mentioned a concern of a neighboring business that patrons from the tavern were parking in their parking lot, public drinking, littering, and damaging property (the gate to the lot). MARTINEZ-VILLEGAS stated that she believed there was a good relationship with neighboring business and that she had reviewed video surveillance and determined that the subjects were not her patrons and offered to show the video to the neighbor. I suggested putting up signage warning customers that they are prohibited from parking in the neighboring business's parking lot.

MARTINEZ-VILLEGAS also stated that she cleans the area around the bar on a daily business and believes that the bottles and garbage are not coming from her patrons.

I did attempt to make contact with the neighbor after the meeting but received no answer.

LICENSED PREMISE REPORT

Young, Jordan J 027133

07/27/2024

This report is being written P.O. Jordan YOUNG, assigned to District Two, Late Shift.

On Saturday, July 27th, 2024, at approximately 1:12 A.M., squad 2341 (P.O Julius TORRES and I was equipped with body worn cameras and operating a marked squad car 209) were dispatched to meet squad 2416 (Sgt. MEJIA) with a possible fight in progress at 1500 W. Mitchell St., which is located in the City and County, of Milwaukee, WI.

Squad 2416 was in the area of listed location when he was flagged by patrons for a possible fight.

Upon our arrival, we did not observe any fight. It should be noted squad 2390, (P.O. Victor HERNANDEZ and Albert SUNN) also responded. We spoke to two patrons who were boyfriend/girlfriend and were arguing. Patrons stated security got involved and believed they were fighting but they were not.

I spoke to the manager identified as Carlos M. MALDONADO LEON (W/M 10-21-97). Carlos stated he saw people arguing and believed a fight was going to occur and got involved. The patrons then left bar and continued to argue outside the location.

The business had one security officer on scene who was unarmed.

This completes my report.

No video surveillance was observed at this time.

While on scene, I observed the licenses posted and they were up to date. During my investigation for a fight, I did not observe any violations in the licensed premise.
