to me

To whom it may concern:

My husband and I live at 2916 N. Prospect Avenue, directly next door to Catie Beck and her small flock of hens. The hens are of no bother to us. They are so quiet, and with the privacy fence between us, we barely notice they are there outside of the occasional cluck. We are in full support of Catie keeping the hens on her property.

Sincerely,

Bridget Hackbart

to me

It has been brought to my attention that the sweet chickens next door are at risk of being removed from their home. The chickens are of no bother to me, if anything, they are a joy to have next door. They're quiet, unobtrusive, and sweet. I would like to see them stay!

Thank you,

Madelyne Strunsee

Feel free to take anything out of that, lol. I really would like to see them stay and I enjoy watching them peck around when I drink my coffee in the kitchen. Hope that's not weird 😂
