EEOC RULES AND REGULATIONS

Section 1601.15 of the Commission's Procedural Regulations provides that persons charged with employment discrimination, such as yourself, may submit a statement of position or evidence with respect to the allegations contained in this charge.

The Commission's Recordkeeping and Reporting Requirements are set forth at 29 CFR, Part 1602 (see particularly §1602.14(a) below) for Title VII of the Civil Rights Act; 29 CFR, Part 1627, for the Age Discrimination in Employment Act; and 29 CFR, Part 1620 for the Equal Pay Act. These Regulations generally require respondents to preserve payroll and personnel records relevant to a charge of discrimination until disposition of the charge or litigation relating to the charge. They also prescribe record retention periods -- in most cases, three years for basic payroll records and one year for personnel records. Questions regarding retention periods and the types of records to be retained should be resolved by reference to the regulations.

§1602.14 Preservation of records made or kept.

(a) Where a charge of discrimination has been filed, or an action brought by the Commission or the Attorney General, against an employer under Title VII, the respondent employer shall preserve all personnel records relevant to the charge or the action. The term "personnel records relevant to the charge," for example, would include personnel or employment records relating to the aggrieved person and to all other aggrieved employees holding positions similar to that held or sought by the aggrieved person and application forms or test papers completed by an unsuccessful applicant and by all other candidates or the same position as that for which the aggrieved person applied and was rejected. The date of "final disposition of the charge or the action" means the date of expiration of the statutory period within which the aggrieved person may bring an action in a U.S. District Court or, where an action is brought against an employer either by the aggrieved person, the Commission, or by the Attorney General, the date on which such litigation is terminated.

NOTICE OF NON-RETALIATION REQUIREMENTS

Section 704(a) of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended, and Section 4(d) of the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, as amended, states:

It shall be an unlawful employment practice for an employer to discriminate against any of his employees or applicants for employment, for an employment agency to discriminate against any individual, or for a labor organization to discriminate against any member thereof or applicant for membership, because he has opposed any practice made an unlawful employment practice by this title, or because he has made a charge, testified, assisted, or participated in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under this title.

The Equal Pay Act of 1963 contains similar provisions. Persons filing charges of discrimination are advised of these Non-Retaliation Requirements and are instructed to notify EEOC if any attempt at retaliation is made.

NOTICE REGARDING REPRESENTATION BY ATTORNEYS

Although it is not necessary that you be represented by an attorney while we handle this charge, you have a right, and may wish to retain an attorney to represent you. If you are represented by an attorney we request that you provide the Commission with your attorney's name, address, and telephone number, and that you ask your attorney to write to the Commission confirming such representation.

I. I was appointed by the City of Milwaukee, Fire and Police Commission November 15, 1996, as Chief of Police. I am the first African American Chief hired by the City. Since August 2000, I have been subjected to public denunciations with respect to my management abilities and my performance. Prior to August 2000, I always received excellent performance ratings. The performance evaluations for the police department, historically have been conducted on an annual basis. On May 4, 2001, I was notified that the performance evaluations of the police department would be held quarterly.

Most recently, Chairman Robert Welch (White) of the Fire and Police Commission referred to me in a racially derogatory manner, taunted me by moving both of his hands towards my chest, stating "come on", inviting me to engage in a physical confrontation with him. These comments and gestures to engage in a physical confrontation with Welch were made during a performance evaluation review. Prior Chiefs of Police of the City of Milwaukee have not been subjected to negative public comments regarding their management styles or performance or subjected to threats or derogatory comments from the Fire and Police Commission.

II. In letters dated September 1, 2001, and April 17, 2002, I informed the Fire and Police Commission, the City Attorney, the Mayor and members of the Common Council of the harassment by Chairman Welch. However, no action has been taken to correct the problem or to provide me with a work environment free of hostility that had been afforded to the previous Chiefs of Police.

III. I believe that I am being subjected to harassment, public denunciation, referred to in a racially derogatory manner, and subjected to a hostile work environment because of my race, African American, in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended.
