

John Constantine, General Manager, Wisconsin Club

Born July 1, 1953 in Brooklyn, New York.

Married to Lin with 2 sons and 6 grandchildren.

Education: 1970 Marquette High School and UW-Madison.

Started his career at the Western Racquet Club coming to the Wisconsin Club in 1990.

The Wisconsin Club purchased Brynwood Country Club in 2009 under his leadership which now offers members a club in the city as well as the country club. The country club's golf membership is full with a waiting list.

Over the years, the Club has put 20 million into the renovations at both facilities.

John has increased membership every year in the past 24 years. Membership has grown from 380 when he first started to 1,465 members today.

John keeps his attention on the details making sure both Clubs are maintained well for its membership. He also looks forward to the future major renovations to the clubhouses, golf course and practice greens.
