

Lawrence A. Stern
621 Eastwyn Bay Dr.
Mequon, WI 53092

Education: Southern Methodist University School of Law (August 1982 – May 1985)
Juris Doctor
Cumulative Average
Class rank within top 10-15%

University of Wisconsin – Madison (September 1976 – May 1979)
Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting – May 1979
G.P.A. – 3.4 on a 4.0 scale
Member of Beta Alpha Psi Honorary Accounting Fraternity
Graduated with Honors

Duke University (September 1975 – May 1976)
Legislator for Associated Students of Duke University
Dean's List

Work Standard Electric Supply Co. (October 1989 – Present)
Experience: Milwaukee, Wisconsin
Position – President

Whyte Hirschboeck, Dubek S.C. (August 1985 – October 1989)
Milwaukee, Wisconsin
Position – Associate

Weiss and Co., CPA's (August 1981 – June 1982)
Northfield, Illinois
Position – Senior Accountant

Given primary responsibility for servicing a diverse range of clients and for supervising junior staff. Exposure included tax return preparation and research, fulfillment of various tax reporting requirements, establishment and maintenance of accounting systems, performance of audit, review and compilation engagements, and legal litigation support. Clients include corporations, partnerships, nonprofit organizations and individuals.

Price Warehouse (August 1979 – August 1981)
Chicago, Illinois
Position – Staff Accountant with In-Charge responsibility

Responsible for all areas of audit engagements, internal control and procedure evaluations, tax return preparation and research, pension plan reporting, and legal litigation support. Clients included manufacturers, financial institutions, law firms, and trade associations.

Professional Certified Public Accountant – May 1980
Status: Member of American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
Member of Wisconsin Bar Association