File No. 170406. Northeast Side Comprehensive Area Plan, 1550 North Prospect Avenue.

1. Reinforce high density transit corridors such as Farwell and Prospect with transit-oriented development.
2. Adjust (zoning requirements) if needed to provide more control over the character and impact of high-rise development, and to support a high level of amenity at street level; engaging pedestrian-friendly both Prospect and the Oak Leaf Trail; and a high level of architectural design.
3. Continue to encourage high density development that supports the area's architectural character, pattern language and blend of historic buildings.

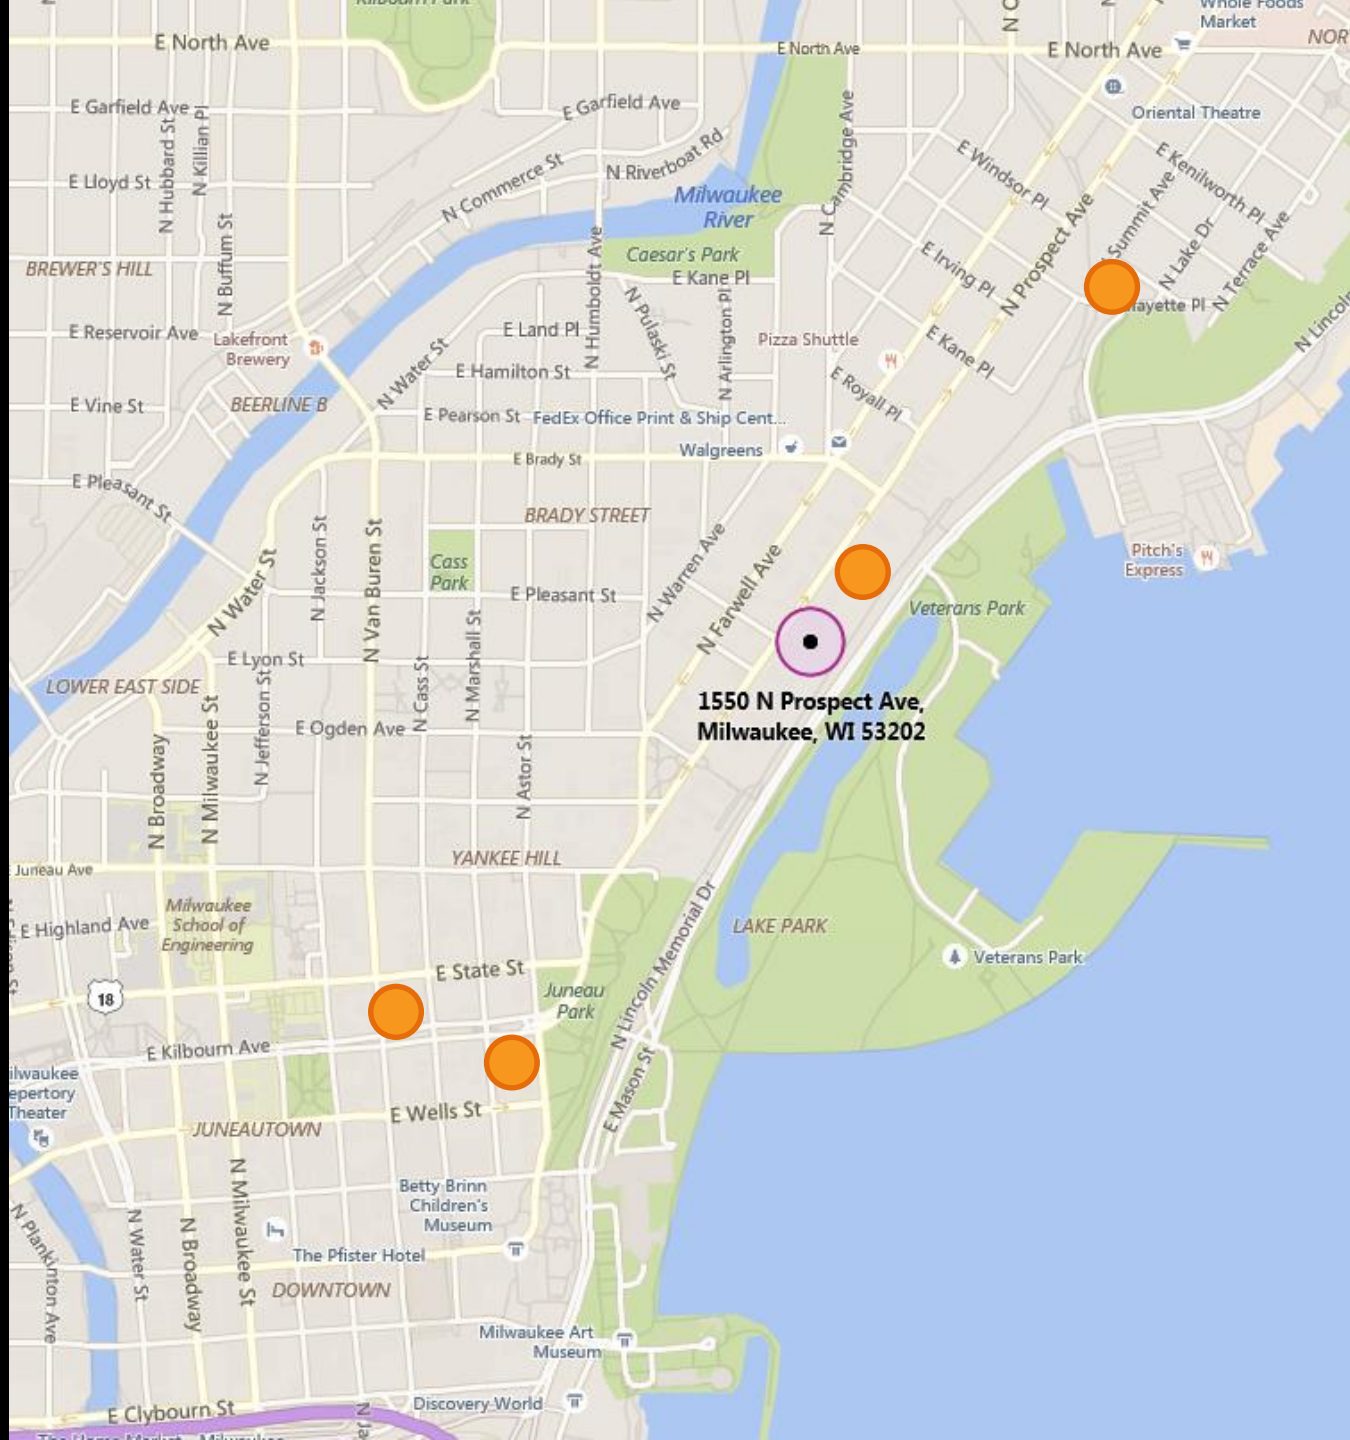

October 7, 2008: Common Council approved Detailed Planned Development (DPD) known as Transera, 26-story, 35 unit building (connected to Goll House). Never constructed

June 13, 2016: City Plan Commission (CPC) recommended to Place on File (due to tie vote) a new DPD for a proposed 27-story, 192 unit building (relocating Goll House)

July 26, 2016: Common Council Placed on File the DPD. Protest petition required a super majority vote.

November 1, 2016: Common Council reconsidered the DPD but it failed.

August 14, 2017: CPC considering DPD for a proposed 27-story, approx. 192 unit building. Reconsideration of zoning change is allowable more than one year since the initial denial of the rezoning.
