Chris, here is some follow information asked at yesterday's meeting about the two home visiting programs funded under the Family Foundations Home Visiting (FFHV) dollars.

Empowering Families Milwaukee (EFM):

In 2016, the program was funded to serve 180 families. There were a total of 162 families actually served in 2016. Thus far in 2017, 121 families have been served.

Vacancies are: 3 Public Health Nurses, 4 Public Health Social Workers and .6 Project Coordinator. A total of 6 offers have been made to 3 Public Health Nurses and 3 Public Health Social Workers.

Waiting for results of those offers.

DADs:

In 2016, the program was funded to serve 50 families. There were a total of 56 families served in 2016. Thus far in 2017, 32 families have been served.

Vacancies are: 1 Family Involvement Specialist and 1 Public Health Nurse. Awaiting oral board for new Public Health Nurse list and awaiting final names for Family Involvement Specialist position.

If you have any other questions, please don't hesitate to contact me.
