Hi Tim,

Attached is a 12" long door pull handle that we are proposing for the new accessible entry door at Uncle Wolfies. It will be dark anodized to match the door and frame system.

Thanks,

Jay

Sorry for the slow release of the staff report, it's been a rough month over here. If you could do something different for the outside hardware (suggestions attached), I think it will all go well. The inside horizontal bar will probably be ok.
