

Grady L. Crosby

Vice President Public Affairs, Chief Diversity Officer and President, Johnson Controls Foundation

Grady L. Crosby is responsible for leading Johnson Controls' government relations strategies, sustainability efforts and its philanthropic initiatives, in order to enhance enterprise business objectives and maintain the company's commitment to social responsibility, community involvement and the environment. In this role, Crosby continues to drive Johnson Controls' commitment to creating a diverse and inclusive workforce as well as partnering with a diverse vendor/supplier base aligned with company values.

Crosby joined Johnson Controls in 2011 as vice president and global general counsel for the Power Solutions business. In that position he supervised all legal operations associated with the Power Solutions business and served as a member of the company's senior legal leadership team. In 2014, Crosby accepted his current role as VP Public Affairs, Chief Diversity Officer and President, Johnson Controls Foundation

Previously, Crosby held positions with Hanesbrands, Inc., National Textiles and Sara Lee Corporation.

Crosby holds a Juris Doctor from Wake Forest University School of Law and a Bachelor of Arts degree from Howard University.

He serves on numerous boards, including PAVE + Schools That Can Milwaukee, Wisconsin Policy Forum, Global Compact Network USA, Marcus Center for the Performing Arts, Black Arts MKE, Froedtert Hospital, VISIT Milwaukee, and the Greater Milwaukee Committee. He is also a member of the Executive Leadership Council.