OFFICE OF
CITY ATTORNEY

To whom this may concern;
I have received your letter denying my claim (C.I. file No. 09-3-238).

You said "The I.S.D. checked all water basins in the area, and reported them as properly working".

I find that hard to believe, seeing as the rain had stopped almost 2 hours prior to my traveling down west Center Streets 30th, 31st, if they were "Properly Working" most of that water would've drained - so it wouldn't have been enough water to flood my car, and several others.

You also stated "I.S.D. records reflect due to the large amount, and intensity of the rain the City storm sewer system was surcharged."

If that was the case those streets that was flooded should've been closed off, because they were reported earlier.

So yes I would like a hearing

Respectfully Yours
Bernice Lewis

CITY CLERK
I Bernice Lewis of 14th Street
Milwaukee, Wis. 53206 (414-344-2009) sound mind, and body was accompanying my son home in my 1995 Pontiac Grand Prix SE.

It was approximately 1:00 am Friday morning June 19th 2009, we were going west on Center Street.
After we passed 30th, Center headed towards 31st, Center, my car became submerged in water.
It happened just under the railroad bridge, my engine, my radio, my brain box, my speakers, everything in my glove compartment, and trunk all became flooded. I feel this would have never happened had the sewers, and drains been cleaned out, so I am seeking reimbursement for my car, the engine I just put in the car, 2 new mufflers, new radio, new strut & boot, new spark plugs, and hose.

Everything comes out to approximately $3,125⁰⁰, enclosed with this letter are all the receipts for the purchase of the car, the purchases of the equipment to be put on or in the car, and the amount the repairs cost. It would be greatly appreciated if this matter could be resolved post haste.

Thank You

Signed; Bernice Lewis
