To Whom it May Concern,

Since I can not be in attendance today, I am reaching out in my support via email. Tim and Ann have contributed many great designs to the city and have also looked in every way to preserve its historic nature, The Oriental Theater being a great example! The proposed home and design, in my opinion, will enhance the neighborhood and has been planned to combat the massive concrete structure currently adjacent to the property. To place a design that doesn't fit well in that location would be like creating Edith Macefield's home from Seattle, the home surrounded by concrete.

In conclusion I believe Tim and Ann, and their young families, will be a welcomed addition to the neighborhood and will deliver a home that compliments the neighborhood and become part of what makes it such a great place to live in Milwaukee.

Sincerely,
