Chair Wagner spoke briefly about the history of veterans housing at the Housing Authority in its 75 years, and also about the recent 75th anniversary of World War II's Invasion of Normandy. He then introduced Mayor Tom Barrett. Mayor Barrett mentioned his childhood near in Parklawn. He continued that as a Congressman, he was first able to experience how HACM builds not just bricks & mortar, but also creates hope & respect through the services that help residents become more self-sufficient. He also commended HACM for its ingenuity and innovation which has resulted in a number of grants and programs.

Chair Wagner next introduced Joseph P. Galvan, the Midwest Regional Administrator of the U. S. Department of Housing & Urban Development, responsible for the oversight and delivery of programs in six Midwest states. Administrator Galvan commended HACM, its leadership and Milwaukee's leadership for consistently pursuing any and all grant opportunities and striving to maximize the impact to the residents of the Housing Authority. Administrator Galvan thanked the veterans for their service. He added that he could have so many more remarks because there have been a lot of victories but closed by reiterating his commitment to HACM to lift up those who are at most risk and at most need because we are one community.

Tony Pérez, Secretary-Executive Director, introduced Fernando Aniban, HACM's Chief Financial Officer, who presented a brief report of the current financial picture.

Mr. Pérez thanked the Board, the Mayor, and the residents for supporting HACM and pushing it to be stronger and to constantly improve. He added that insistence is manifest at Victory Manor and Westlawn as the state's largest public housing development is seeing new water sequestration features, new to Milwaukee LED street lighting, etc., which resulted in the eastern half being recognized as the first LEED-Silver rating for Neighborhood Development in the world. Mr. Pérez also talked about the impact of this neighborhood-based redevelopment which has brought 150 million dollars of investment to date through all the partners of the Choice Neighborhood Grant. Mr. Pérez also thanked the HUD Administration for reviewing its regulatory elements that increase costs for building affordable housing. He also wanted to thank those being honored later for what they've done for HACM.

Paul Williams, HACM's Choice Neighborhood Coordinator, presented a powerpoint entitled "HACM Annual Meeting 2019 Presentation" which included information on the following:

- Highlights from HACM's 75 years of service, including the history of its veterans housing.*
- The current redevelopment of Westlawn Gardens, including the new Victory Manor.*
- The economic impact of HACM to the community and state.*
- HACM's services that power residents to greater stability and new ways of life, including HACM's Educational Initiative, scholarships, Section 3 program, employment and case management assistance, financial literacy and homeownership.*
- Four current or newly-former HACM residents who exemplify Ripples of Hope: Troy Burks, a longtime Westlawn resident who recently purchased a home after his caseworker connected him with some classes, Angelita Ingram, who has found employment at HACM through HACM's @Promise program and recently received an Associate's Degree with a 3.8 GPA with a HACM scholarship, Thomas Green, a former Westlawn resident who was able to access a revolving loan as part of the Choice Neighborhood Initiative to fund his new food truck, and Calvin Onsley, a Vietnam veteran who recently moved into Victory Manor and is receiving services onsite from the Center for Veterans Issues.*
- Upcoming activities for the Housing Authority including the continued revitalization of* Westawn Gardens, the CNI Planning Grant, which includes HACM's College Court, received by the Near West Side Partners, RAD investment in revitalizing public housing, the Hillside Works grant providing job coaching to Hillside residents, and new development near the Convent Hill building that will provide housing for people of all income levels.

- HACM Honors – recognizing 11 individuals and organizations for their service to HACM and Milwaukee.

Mr. Pérez thanked the attendees for their time and closed with part of the piece "The People I Like," acknowledging those who give the best of themselves

Chair Wagner thanked all of the attendees and closed with two thoughts from Gen. Norman Schwartzkopf: "When placed in command — take charge" and "Do what is right." Chair Wagner added that he will continue to do that.

The guests were then invited to the flag raising by the American Legion Honor Guard at the front of the building.

Adjournment

There being no further business, Commissioner Diaz made a motion to adjourn the meeting at 11:11 a.m. Commissioner VandeBerg seconded the motion. There being no objections, the motion carried.
