Ms. Booker:

I received your messages. Please complete and return the attached application by the end of the week and I will schedule you for the next hearing on April 12.

As to penalties, we have understanding with Neighborhood Services on these issues when they are not health and safety concerns. As long as you get your application in on time, there is no chance of a fine until after the hearing date.

If the Commission rejects your new windows, they have the discretion to give you an extended timeline to undo the work, but you MUST specifically request that in the application if you want that option. They can't offer it unless you ask. 6
