Report from the President

Sponsors: THE CHAIR

President Pérez opened with two quotes from Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.: "Take the first step in faith. You don't have to see the whole staircase, just take the first step." and "Nothing worthwhile is gained without sacrifice." He added that there is a long way to go before there is true equanimity and inclusion, but organizations like Travaux and its staff and Board are part of the social justice movement.

President Pérez asked Scott Simon, Travaux's Vice President of Development, to speak about the early planning being considered around HACM's Hillside development. While it is too early for specifics, potential amenities and layouts are being explored. There is an expectation that total number of units throughout the neighborhood will increase, including the current tally of Hillside units, and there is hope that the revitalization of Hillside will improve the quality of life throughout the neighborhood. A preliminary picture will be brought to a future Board meeting.

President Pérez asked Fernando Aniban, HACM's Chief Financial Officer, for an update and he mentioned that green features are under consideration for the Westlawn Renaissance IV construction.

President Pérez also had staff update the Directors about the status of the Travaux website, which will be shared with the Directors shortly, and a video being developed for the Westlawn Choice Neighborhood, which is expected to be completed in the next week or so.
