would like to file a complaint with the licensing division for the above taxi driver. She states he often says a ride will be $10 instead of using the meter.

I informed her that someone from the licensing division would give her a call to:

- let her know if she needs to do anything else (I believe you require a written form of complaint)
- let her know when you expect the license for this cab to come up for renewal

She is happy to testify and would like notice of the hearing.

Thank you!

Subject: Complaint on Cab number 585 with Receipt from geminyze@gmail.com

Dear Sir/Madam,

I was told that this email address is for making a complaint about Taxi services I received in City of Milwaukee. I would like to make a complaint on the yellow-colored cab with number 585 on the side and back. I have seen this cab parking in front of the Milwaukee Intermodal Station many times. Last year on 10/31/2018, in the morning around 7:35 am, I got off the Amtrak train and took this cab to where I work at 875 E Wisconsin Ave. I normally pay $7 including $1-$1.5 tip when I take the cab to this address from Intermodal Station. That day was the first time I got into this 585 cab and the driver immediately said he required $10 minimum. I felt very confused and tried to point out to him that there should be no minimum cap on a cab ride like this, neither I had this type of encounter in my 3.5 yrs commute with any other cab drivers on this route. He insisted that I should pay $10 and I said the maximum I would like to pay would be $8. He agreed orally but since I paid by card instead of cash, once I got off the car I received this email receipt saying I was still charged $10 regardless and on top of the $8 I agreed to pay, he added $2 as tip himself. The details of the receipt are shown below for your reference.

I was furious about this driver's behavior and I was very frustrated that then in the next few weeks/months, I continuously spotted him still waiting in line and sometimes the first of line in front of the Intermodal Station. Every time since then when I see his cab number I avoid getting on his car, even though normally you have to go to the first in line. I told several other cab drivers about my experience and they were all accusing him. They said this person had been rejected to a number of places in town and his reputation is bad among the drivers as well. They also agreed with me that such a bad customer service experience could definitely do harm to the image of Milwaukee cab drivers as a whole. Hence I was motivated to write this complaint to you and with the receipt information and the cab number, I believe it is not hard for you to locate him. He is a Caucasian guy in late 40's/early 50's with dark but very short hair. I would suggest such behavior of ripping off customers and giving bad customer service should not be tolerated.

Please let me know if you have any questions and I could be reached at

Thanks

REDACTED RECORD

Friday July 19, 2019 I arrived in Milwaukee at 3:20 p.m. by train from Chicago. The train was an hour late.

I took a Yellow Taxi Cab number 585 from the Train Station to the Pfister Hotel. The cab driver did not use the meter.

Arriving at the Pfister Hotel the driver said the fare was Ten Dollars ($10.00) I stated on Thursday that I took a cab from the Pfister Hotel to the Train Station and the fare was $6.75 and that I gave the cab driver $10.00 for the fare and tip.

I informed cab driver number 585 of this and asked why I was being charged ten dollars. The driver stated that he had been waiting almost two hours at the train station and their fare was a ten dollar charge.

I stated that the train being late was not my fault and why was he rate gauging me? The driver got very angry with me questioning his rate. The driver stated "Pay me what you want and get out of my cab."

I paid the driver with tip $9.00.

In closing this black man driver is a nasty, insulting driver!

The "Yellow Cab Co." of Milwaukee (414-272-7544) said that they do not have a Yellow Cab Number 585 and that #585 must belong to the "Yellow Cab of Milwaukee" 4147-578-7500 since Milwaukee has two yellow cab companies.

In closing, I hope that the city cracks down on the rate gauging cab drivers before they ruin the tourist business and give the City of Milwaukee a bad reputation.

I cannot believe that there have not been any other complaints on cab driver #585.

Sincerely,

I wanted to write and commend one of your drivers, Mike.

He is ALWAYS on time and very pleasant to me. He goes above and beyond to make sure I am picked up and on time every time he picks me up or drops me off.

He is extremely responsible and goes out of his way when I have groceries or appointments that I need to get to on time.

Again, I would like to commend this driver and am happy that he happened to pick me up the first time 4 years ago. I would not like to have anyone else to depend on for my transportation needs.

To whom it may concern:

I am writing in support of Miloud Laasiri, driver of Taxi Cab 585. I have known "Mike" for over 3 years as my primary driver to the airport for my work.

I travel weekly by air for my work and have had the privilege of having Mike to provide me with transportation to the airport, and oftentimes home as well over over those three plus years. He has been professional and kind every time I have had the opportunity to ride with him. I have referred him to friends and trusted family members to his care.

Because we live downtown and walk most places we often see Mike picking up and dropping off passengers. I am always amazed at his consistent professionalism, warmth and friendliness with clients. While I can imagine someone being difficult and/or rude to Mike in his line of business, I am confident that Mike handles each situation professionally. Handling a difficult individual professionally doesn't require that Mike provide transportation to them. I would hope Mike wouldn't feel so obligated.

I respectfully request that the circumstances of any complaint against Mike be resolved to his favor.

I am happy to be available for questions as needed.

Respectfully,

Barbara Eckblad

Subject: Re: Inappropriate taxi driver

Myself and three friends, all senior citizens, were returning from a girls week in Florida. Our flight coming in was suppose to arrive in Milwaukee at 11:59 pm on February 11. It was delayed and we got in at about 2:00 am on February 12. I called the econo lodge for their shuttle bus. We had a ride and fly package with the airport econo lodge. The night manager said the shuttle bus was not running and to take the taxi, get a receipt and he would reimburse me. We took the next taxi and told the driver to go to the airport econo lodge and the manager would reimburse me. I said I think it is on 6th street. He said that was wrong and it would cost me more. I said pull over and let me goggle the address. Then when we get to the econo lodge I said to him come inside with me and get the money from the manager. I knew by this time he was going to rip us off. He said give me a tip. I swore and told him no. Then he pulled out his half arm looking for a sympathy tip. I went in and he followed. He told the manager $28. The manager said others get $20. I left but I think they settled for $25. You can check with the airport econo lodge. His taxi number was 909. I have a picture. If I can not get in with email I will mail it later.
