Sponsors: THE CHAIR

14 DHILLON, Inderjeet S, Agent for "Best Liquor, LLC", Class A Malt & Class A Liquor License Application with 18+ Age Restriction for "Best Liquor" at 555 W BECHER St.

The applicant stated he was set up by Mr. Witkowiak and there are no charges pending. The applicant added he borrowed $1.5 million from the bank for development. He stated there are chain restaurants and several gas stations and questioned the concentration of chain operations.

Appearing with the applicant:

Fred Royal representing the Milwaukee NAACP 2745 N Dr. Martin Luther King Jr Dr stated they are in support of the application. He added that there are only 2 other liquor stores near the proposed location. He added that the applicant and his wife have owned a gas station for the last 20 years, they employ 7 people, and have invested $1.5 million in the neighborhood. He added that the NAACP did not take a vote on supporting this application.

Individuals present in opposition:

Jan Schlei 2116 S 6th St stated the applicant does not know how to maintain a laundry mat and there is litter around. She added that there are other liquor stores in the area.

Carol Hoppe 2119 S 6th St stated she is against the liquor store because there are problems with the restaurant in the same building.

Chris Bystra 2119 S 6th St stated he is concerned about the concentration of liquor in the area.

James Witkowiak 529 W Historic Mitchell St stated the applicant tried to bribe him in 2011 and he contacted the FBI regarding the incident. Ald. Rainey moved to enter into the record as exhibit #1 the written statement from Mr. Witkowiak. (Prevailed 5-0)

Individuals present in support:

Robert Bergeron 2414 N 16th St stated he is the head chef at Monterrey and there is no litter or unwanted persons.

Thomas Holmes 2712 N Dr. Martin Luther King Jr Dr stated he rents his restaurant space from the applicant and he is able to employ people. He added that there is no litter problem and no problems with the restaurant.

Chad Roziniak 2000 S 5th Pl stated he has lived there his whole life and he believes the applicant will be bringing business to the area. He added that there is litter everywhere.

Ald. Perez asked if the adding liquor to the neighborhood would help it. Mr. Roziniak responded that adding liquor to the neighborhood would help it.

Edward Tylack 2051 S 5th Pl stated the applicant helps out everyone in the neighborhood.

Ald. Zielinski stated the area is challenged and adding liquor is not a good way to turn the neighborhood around. He stated adding liquor exasperates the existing problems in the area.
