3. New Work Fund

October 26, 2017 at 6PM - Public Art Listening Session

4. Conservation Fund

Sally Witte stated that Site Specific Staffing on National has a mural that is deteriorating and they attempted to contact the artist. They are thinking of painting a new mural. She stated that she will encourage them to submit an application if they are considering doing the project. She stated that she will confirm whether or not the project can be funded due to the organization being for-profit.

5. New Business

Ms. Morris stated that MMSD is considering hiring someone to integrate art into projects, her name was mentioned, and while meeting with the group, she suggested seeking an artist resident for the River Reclamation Projects.

6. Old Business

Presentation:

- Karen Lindholm-Rynkiewicz - The New Water Parade which will include the renting of barges less than 12 ft tall due to bridges like the Wells Street Bridge. The barges and/or floats will exhibit active art and travel about 4 miles of the river. She stated that there are several artists willing to participate. She stated that they are asking the Arts Board to help promote the event, in the meantime they will continue to seek funding. The funding will help compensate the artists and performers.
