Neighborhood objectors present:

Todd Weber, 228 W. Alvina Ave., about two blocks from the establishment. He is a police officer and a resident of the community. Mr. Weber says that he is worried about the crowds at the venue and how it would be handled by the reduced police coverage in the area. He is also worried about loud noise and a large amount of vehicles parking in his subdivision.

Dennis Trzcinski, 6239 S. 3rd St., less than a block away from the establishment. He is a police officer and a resident, and he is concerned about the size of the crowds that will be at the venue. He is not in support of the license.

Connie Wilson, 6220 S. 1st St., president of the neighborhood association. She says that she is in agreement with Officer Weber and is not in support of the license.

Gary Paccesy, 152 W. Goldleaf, about three blocks away from the establishment. He says that he does not believe that there will be enough parking at the establishment, which will lead to parking problems in the neighborhood.

Lt. Steve Anderson of the Oak Creek police department, 301 W. Bryan Road. He says that parking at the venue is a concern for the Oak Creek police department.

Mark Winfrey, 313 W. Uncas Ave. He is not in support of the license and he says that he fears for the safety of small children in the neighborhood who may be out when patrons of the business are driving around looking for parking.

Shawn Nadonly, 163 W. Goldleaf Ave., is not in support of the license and is concerned about a noise nuisance.

Toni Fare, 330 W. College Ave., has lived in the neighborhood since 1979. She is opposed to the license due to concerns about noise and parking problems.

Dan Palmisano, 322 W. College Ave, about fifty feet from the establishment. He is concerned about the traffic overflow.

Supporters of the license:

Luis Skariba, 188 E. Bluewater Lane, Vernon Hills, IL, is the video DJ for the company at another venue. He thinks that having a building empty for over ten years could be a hazard. He says that the bands from other countries do not come every Friday or Saturday. Mr. Skariba says that most of the bands will be local bands that would draw about 300 to 400 people. He says that a crowd of 1,000 would be a rare occurrence.

Camilo Acosta says that they will only allow the amount of people that the city will allow them to have.

The applicant says that all he wants is two or three months to prove the he can run the business.

Abraham Summers, owns the bar in Beloit at which the applicant curently runs a club. He says that he never has any problems.

Ald. Witkowski says that the applicant has kept changing the kind of business that he wants to open at the location. He says that the building has been empty because of the problem history at the location. Ald. Witkowiak requests that the committee deny the license.
