- Analysis -

This ordinance establishes salaries for the mayor and common council members for the 2000-2004 term of offices as follows:

1. a. Council members, except for the council president: at the second step of the salary grade to which these positions are assigned under the management pay plan, based on rates in effect at the commencement of the 2000 term. Effective pay period 9, 2001 and each year thereafter in pay period 9, the salary shall be advanced one step within the grade, based on rates in effect at the commencement of the term.

b. Common council president: 4 pay steps above the salary established for common council members.

2. Mayor: at the first step of the salary grade to which this position is assigned under the management pay plan, based on rates in effect at the commencement of the 2000 term. Effective pay period 9, 2001 and each year thereafter in pay period 9, the salary shall be advanced one step within the grade, based on rates in effect at the commencement of the term.

The Mayor and Common Council of the City of Milwaukee do ordain as follows:

Part 1. Section 350-100 of the code is repealed and recreated to read:

350-100. Salaries of Mayor and Members of the Common Council.

1. MAYOR. At the commencement of the 2000 term of office, the mayor's salary shall be placed at the first step of the salary grade to which the position is assigned under the management pay plan, based on rates in effect at the commencement of the 2000 term. Effective pay period 9, 2001, and in each year thereafter in pay period 9, the mayor's salary shall be advanced by one pay step within the assigned salary grade, based on rates in effect at the commencement of the term. This movement through the steps of the salary grade shall continue in subsequent terms of office, based on rates in effect at the commencement of the term, until the maximum of the grade has been attained.

2. COMMON COUNCIL MEMBERS. At the commencement of the 2000 term of office, the salary for members of the common council shall be at the second step of the salary grade to which this position is assigned under the management pay plan, based on rates in effect at the commencement of the 2000 term. Effective pay period 9, 2001, and each year thereafter in pay period 9, the salary shall be advanced by one step within the assigned salary grade, based on rates in effect at the commencement of the term. This movement through the steps of the salary grade shall continue in subsequent terms of office, based on rates in effect at the commencement of the term, until the maximum of the grade has been attained.

3. COMMON COUNCIL PRESIDENT. The salary of the president of the common council shall be at a rate which is 4 pay steps above that established for members of the common council under sub. 2.
