This ordinance:

1. Classifies a dialysis establishment as a medical office, rather than as a medical service facility, for zoning purposes.
2. Defines 3 land uses involving the production and packaging of alcohol beverages - “brewpub,” “micro alcohol beverage facility” and “large alcohol beverage facility”.
3. Defines “food processing” as a separate and distinct land use.
4. Removes the processing and packaging of alcohol beverages from the definition of “heavy manufacturing”.
5. Removes food processing from the definition of “light manufacturing”.
6. Classifies a brewpub as a special use in the neighborhood shopping zoning districts, as a limited use in the industrial-office, industrial-light and industrial-heavy zoning districts, and as a permitted use in the local business, commercial service, regional shopping and industrial-mixed zoning districts and all downtown zoning districts except the C9A (high-density residential) district. A brewpub is a prohibited use in all other zoning districts.
7. Classifies a micro alcohol beverage facility as a special use in the local business (except LB3) and regional business districts, and as a permitted use in the commercial service, industrial-office, industrial-light, industrial-mixed, industrial-heavy, C9G (mixed activity) and C9H (warehousing and light manufacturing) districts. A micro alcohol beverage facility is a prohibited use in all other zoning districts.

8. Classifies a large alcohol beverage facility as a special use in the industrial-office and industrial-mixed districts, as a limited use in the C9G (mixed activity), C9H (warehousing and light manufacturing) and industrial-light districts, and as a permitted use in the industrial-heavy districts. A large alcohol beverage facility is a prohibited use in all other zoning districts.

9. Classifies food processing as a limited use in the local business, commercial service, regional business, C9B (residential and specialty use), C9C (neighborhood retail), C9E (major retail) and C9F (office and service) zoning districts, and as a permitted use in the industrial-office, industrial-light, industrial-mixed, C9G (mixed activity) and C9H (warehousing and light manufacturing) districts. Food processing is a prohibited use in all other zoning districts.
