THE CHAIR

Substitute resolution effectuating a provision of the 2002 budget relating to prohibiting the involvement of community services personnel in activities relating to the city's cable television franchise.

This resolution effectuates a provision of the 2002 adopted city budget relating to 2 positions - community services specialist, senior and community services coordinator - in the City Clerk's office. These positions, among other functions, are responsible for various activities related to the city's cable television franchise including customer service, fees, billing, maintenance and public access complaints. They are currently funded out of general city funds. Pursuant to the 2002 adopted budget, these positions are to be funded 80% by community development block grant funds and 20% by general city funds.
