This ordinance makes various changes to regulations, requirements, and procedures for various licenses and permits, including:

1. Amending application and renewal requirements for temporary food dealer licenses.
2. Standardizing provisional renewal license fees.
3. Repealing redundant provisions relating to the issuance and transfer of licenses.

4. Repealing the requirement that alcohol beverage establishment license applicants file proof of the right to occupy the premises, to be consistent with other license types. Alcohol beverage establishment licensees shall still provide documentation upon request and notify the city clerk if their right to occupy the premises will be interrupted or terminated.

5. Amending issuance procedures for centers for visual and performing arts licenses to correctly reference chapter 85.

6. Clarifying provisions relating to applicants who fail to receive their licenses or permits.

7. Correcting errors, clarifying language, and eliminating obsolete provisions.
