Whereas, On April 22, 2020, Ladarius Marshall successfully petitioned Judge William C. Greisbach of the United States District Court for habeas relief on the theory that the Wisconsin State criminal court’s denial of Ladarius Marshall’s motion to suppress was unconstitutional; and

Whereas, All charges against Ladarius Marshall were dismissed by the State of Wisconsin on July 16, 2020 after the State moved to vacate the conviction; and

Whereas, On October 7, 2020, the law firm of Loevy & Loevy submitted a notice of claim letter to the Milwaukee City Clerk asserting claims under Wisconsin state law against the City and the two investigating Milwaukee Police Department detectives in the amount of $12,000,000 for negligent investigation, negligent supervision and training, malicious prosecution, abuse of process, negligent and intentional misrepresentation, negligent and intentional infliction of emotional distress, respondeat superior, indemnification, and unspecified federal claims; and

Whereas, The City of Milwaukee desires to retain Nathan & Kamionski LLP to investigate the claim, and provide advice, counsel, and representation against the claim; now, therefore, be it
