Most of the current code provisions relating to the city treasurer date back to state legislation passed in the late 1800s. This ordinance updates these provisions to accurately reflect current practices. In addition, the ordinance does the following:

1. Repeals the provision allowing the treasurer to appoint multiple deputy treasurers.
2. Modifies the provision allowing the treasurer to appoint a special deputy.
3. Repeals the provision defining the additional powers of deputy treasurers.
4. Modifies the provision regarding the funds the treasurer is to keep on hand.
5. Repeals the provision requiring the filing of monthly statements to the city comptroller.
6. Clarifies the provision regarding the powers of the deputy comptroller, clerk and treasurer.
7. Repeals the provision relating to accounts of moneys received.
8. Repeals the provision relating to negligence of duty relating to the accounts of moneys received.
9. Repeals the provision relating to reporting on the sale of land for delinquent taxes to the public debt commission.
