- Analysis -

This ordinance revises various code provisions relating to the newly created department of neighborhood services:

A) Reinspection fee schedule for health department reinspections transferred to neighborhood services follows the neighborhood fee schedule - no fee charged when compliance is recorded; $50 for all other previous reinspections.

B) Jurisdiction for all activities relating to the moving of buildings is retained by neighborhood services, rather than being shared by neighborhood services and city development.

The Mayor and Common Council of the City of Milwaukee do ordain as follows:

Part 1. Section 200-33-48 of the code is amended to read:

200-33. Fees.

48. REINSPECTION FEE. To compensate for inspectional and administrative costs, a fee of $50 may be charged for any reinspection to determine compliance with an order to correct conditions of [[the building code or to comply with s.308-81-9 or the conditions prescribed in a certificate of appropriateness issued pursuant thereto]] >>provisions of the Milwaukee code under the jurisdiction of the department of neighborhood services or assigned to the department<<, except no fee shall be charged for the reinspection when compliance is recorded. Reinspection fees shall be charged against the real estate upon which the reinspections were made, shall be a lien upon the real estate and shall be assessed and collected as a special tax.

Part 2. Whenever the term "commissioner of city development" appears in the following sections of the code, the term commissioner is substituted:

218-2-1-a 218-2-1-b 218-3-1-a 218-5-2

Part 3. The reference to "commissioner of city development" in s. 218-4-a, as cited in s. 108, common council file number 980963, passed December 18, 1998, effective January 1, 1999, is repealed.
